

PROFESSIONAL BIO FOR JASON HALL

Jason Hall is a top-rated keynote speaker and expert who works with organizations to increase sales, overcome challenges and create success.

Born in Boise, Idaho, at fifteen Jason was involved in a diving accident that caused him to become a quadriplegic, paralyzed from the chest down. Jason's disability slowed him down, but he refused to let it stop him. Jason was elected the Student Body President at Brigham Young University—the nation's largest private university, and later became one of the top 6% of insurance professionals around the world as a member of the Million Dollar Round Table. Jason currently owns his own company and spends his time as a sought after speaker and sales and leadership expert who has presented to hundreds of groups from 5 to 5,000 across the nation and around the world.

Jason knows how to turn tragedy into triumph and has dedicated his life to help others do the same. He has a unique ability use his entertaining wit, powerful insight and infectious energy to teach others how to create “Success in Every Circumstance.”

He currently lives in Syracuse, Utah with his wife Kolette and son Coleman.

Past Clients Include: Million Dollar Round Table, Citibank, Visa, Wells Fargo, New York Life, Adecco, Boy Scouts of America, United Way.
